SUMMER HOURS

The Library's summer schedule begins in July. The summer hours are: Monday to Thursday from 9:00AM - 9:00PM, Friday from 9:00AM - 5:00PM and Saturday from 9:00AM-1:00PM. This schedule is in effect through Labor Day, September 7. We will be closed on Sundays through September 27.

VACATION LOANS

All Baldwin residents whose library cards are in good standing may participate in the Library's vacation loan program. All young adult and adult non-special books may be borrowed for a vacation loan period until September 14.

New books, items in high demand, and school assignment/reading list titles are not included. Now is a great time to read all those terrific books that you meant to get to all year. For more information, please call the Circulation Desk at 223-6228.

LOOKING FOR FUN IDEAS AND ACTIVITIES THIS SUMMER?

Check out the Library's Museum Pass Program. Baldwin residents can enjoy free passes to ten local and metropolitan museums and gardens. Visit our webpage or stop by the Adult Reference Desk for more information.

Try our audio books for your vacation car trip. The Library has audio books on CD and cassette. Ask about our popular Playaways, too.

The Library now has video games to lend! Check out a video game from the following platforms: PlayStation2, PlayStation3, XBOX360 and Wii. Games are available in the Children's Room and the Adult Department and may be borrowed for 7 days on an adult library card.

Have a nice summer!

THANK YOU

On May 19, 2009, the Baldwin Community approved the Library's 2009-10 budget. The Board of Trustees, Administration and Staff would like to express their thanks to the Community for their continued support. Remember to visit your Library and take advantage of the wealth of resources and programs.

Results of the Library Budget vote:

1378 - YES

668 - NO

Joseph J. Carroll was re-elected to the Board of Trustees for a five year term.

Tuesday, September 15

Calling all scrappers! Bring your current projects and exchange ideas with others as you work on your own layouts. Telephone registration is ongoing at the Adult Reference Desk.

Summer Films

Movies are shown on Thursdays at 1:00 & 7:00PM except for movies longer than two hours. Those evening movies will begin earlier as noted below with * and the actual starting time.

Little Miss Sunshine – July 2

A family road trip to a pageant to support little would-be beauty queen Olive results in comic mayhem, death and a family full of losers living in a world obsessed with winning. Starring Alan Arkin, Abigail Breslin, Steve Carell, Toni Collette, Greg Kinnear. 103 minutes. Rated R.

Doubt – July 9

Set in 1964, Doubt centers on a nun who confronts a priest after suspecting him of abusing a black student. He denies the charges and much of the movie's quick-fire dialogue tackles themes of religion, morality and authority. Starring Amy Adams, Viola Davis, Philip Seymour Hoffman, Meryl Streep. 104 minutes. Rated PG-13.

Quantum of Solace – July 16

Betrayed by Vesper, the woman he loved, 007 fights the urge to make his latest mission personal. Bond and M interrogate Mr. White, who reveals the organization which blackmailed Vesper and who is far more complex and dangerous than anyone had imagined. Starring Daniel Craig, Judi Dench, Giancarlo Giannini, Olga Kurylenko. 107 minutes. Rated PG-13.

The Curious Case of Benjamin Button – July 23, *6:15PM

Benjamin Button was born in his eighties, and unable to stop time, he continued to age backwards. His life story is detailed from the end of World War I in 1918 and into the 21st century, when he discovered a love that lasted beyond time. Starring Cate Blanchett, Taraji P. Henson, Elias Koteas, Julia Ormond, Brad Pitt, Tilda Swinton. 165 minutes. Rated PG-13.

Marley & Me – July 30

A memoir of Philadelphia Inquirer columnist John Grogan's life with his yellow Labrador retriever. The heartwarming and unforgettable story of a family in the making and the wondrously neurotic dog who taught them what really matters in life. Starring Jennifer Aniston, Alan Arkin, Eric Dane, Kathleen Turner, Owen Wilson. 110 minutes. Rated PG.

Revolutionary Road – August 6

A young couple living in suburban Connecticut in 1955 appears to have a perfect life, but they aren't happy. They decide to break away from the ordinary and move to Paris, but can they do it without breaking the marriage apart? Starring Kathy Bates, Leonardo DiCaprio, Richard Easton, Michael Shannon, Kate Winslet. 118 minutes. Rated R.

Confessions of a Shopaholic – August 13

Rebecca Bloomwood is a charming New York City girl who has a little problem that is quickly turning into a big problem: She's hopelessly addicted to shopping and is drowning in a sea of debt. Rebecca has dreams of working for a top fashion magazine, and can't quite get her foot in the door until she lands a job as an advice columnist for a financial magazine published by the same company. Starring Joan Cusack, Hugh Dancy, Isla Fisher, John Goodman, John Lithgow, Lynn Redgrave, Kristin Scott Thomas. 105 minutes. Rated PG.

Defiance – August 20

Evening showing only at 6:45PM (no afternoon showing)

The extraordinary true story of the Bielski brothers who turn a band of war defectors into commanding freedom fighters and motivate hundreds of private citizens to join their fight against the Nazi regime. Starring Jamie Bell, Allan Corduner, Daniel Craig, Alexa Davalos, Mark Feuerstein, Jodhi May, Liev Schreiber. 136 minutes. Rated R.

Once – August 27

A Czech immigrant meets an Irish street musician, and together they spend one eventful week writing and recording songs that describe their own unique love. Starring Glen Hansard, Marketa Irglova. 86 minutes. Rated R.

Some Like It Hot – September 3

In this classic comedy, two struggling musicians witness the St. Valentine's Day Massacre and try to find a way out of the city before they are found and killed by the mob. The only job that will pay their way is an all-girl band, so the two dress up as women. In addition to hiding, each has his own problem: One falls for another band member but can't reveal his gender, and the other has a rich suitor who will not take "No" for an answer. Starring Tony Curtis, Jack Lemmon, Marilyn Monroe, George Raft. 120 minutes. Not Rated.
